From Saturday November 14, to Tuesday November 17, 1761.

AT the Council Chamber Whitehall, the 7th Day of November, 1761,

PRESENT,

The Lords of His Majesty's most Honourable Privy Council.

WHEREAS Information hath been given to the Lords of His Majesty's most Honourable Privy Council, that a great Number of Journeymen, in the Cabinet and Chair Branches, have lately entered into a Combination to lessen the Hours of their daily Work, and to raise the Price of their Piece Work; and that on Monday the 14th of September last, at Nine of the Clock in the Morning, the Journeymen, in several of the Shops of the principal Cabinet and Chair-makers in London and Westminster, came in Bodies to their respective Masters, and demanded the Lessening their daily Hours of Work, and Raising the Prices of their Piece Work; which being refused, they immediately quitted their Services. That the said Masters have, by all Means, endeavoured to prevail on the said Journeymen to return to their Business, and offered them Protection and Encouragement according to their Merit; notwithstanding which, they hold frequent Meetings at Publick Houses, and raise Subscriptions among themselves for supporting such Journeymen as are unemployed, and for carrying their Demands into Execution; which, if complied with, would increase the Prices of Work, and greatly affect not only the Foreign Trade of those Commodities, but also those that are provided for Home Consumption. — And whereas it hath been further represented, That the said Journeymen Cabinet and Chair-makers, so in Combination, deter and hinder others from working as usual, and threaten them with Death or Maiming, if they do not come into, and assist them in their Demands—In order to put a Stop to such unlawful Combinations and riotous Proceedings—It is hereby Ordered in Council, That all and every His Majesty's Justices of the Peace, Sheriffs, Under Sheriffs, and all other Civil Magistrates whatsoever, do cause the Laws against such Offenders to be immediately put into Execution, and use their utmost Endeavours to put an immediate Stop to such unlawful Meetings and Combinations; and that, in order to prevent the same, they do particularly enquire into the Behaviour of all Masters of Publick Houses, where the said Journeymen assemble and resort, in order to carry on their illegal Practices, to the End that such Prosecutions may be carried on against them, as may be thought just and reasonable, to prevent this great Evil: And their Lordships do hereby Command the respective Justices of the Peace, and other Magistrates, that they do, from Time to Time, transmit an exact Account of what they shall do, pursuant to this their Lordships Order, to one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

Hen. Fane.

St. James's, November 14.

The following Address of the Mayor and Burgesses of the Borough of Stafford in the County of Stafford, has been presented to His Majesty by the Hon William Richard Chetwynd and William Chetwynd, Esqrs. their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor and Burgesses of the Borough of Stafford in the County of Stafford, in Common Council assembled.

Most gracious Sovereign,

AMIDST the Congratulations which surround the Throne, permit us the Mayor and Burgesses of the Borough of Stafford, to lay before your Majesty the Sentiments of Hearts partaking of the Joys of the whole Nation, on the happy Event of your Royal Nuptials.

Your Majesty's Choice of a Protestant Princess, so eminently distinguished for Her Virtues, and Her other noble and personal Accomplishments, leaves no Room to doubt, but that the Religion and Liberties of this Country, which have been so carefully maintained and protected by your Majesty's Royal Progenitors, will be secured to us by your Majesty; and may there never be wanting a Race of Princes, descended from your Majesty, and your Royal Consort, to transmit these invaluable Blessings to latest Posterity.

We cannot omit this Opportunity to return your Majesty our most unfeigned Thanks, for your paternal Care over us, in which your Zeal for the Encouragement of Piety and Virtue, so conspicuous in your Majesty, makes not the least Part. May your Majesty long live to enjoy the Fruits of Conjugal Felicity, and the faithful Affection of a grateful and happy People.

Given under our Common Seal, the sixteenth Day of October, in the Year of our Lord, One thousand seven hundred and sixty-one.

The following Address of the Bayliffs and Burgesses of the Borough of Bridgnorth in the County of Salop, has been presented to His Majesty by Lieutenant General Whitmore and the Hon. John Grey, Esq; their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bayliffs and Burgesses of the Borough of Bridgnorth in the County of Salop.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bayliffs and Burgesses of Bridgnorth, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with the most dutiful and sincere Testimony of our Joy, at your Majesty's Auspicious Nuptials with a Princess, not only descended from a Family, who has distinguished itself so eminently in the Protestant Cause; but who is in herself endowed with all the Virtues and Accomplishments requisite to share the Throne with so great and beloved a King.

That from this happy Union may spring a Race of Princes, formed by your Majesty's great Example, to rule a grateful People to latest Posterity, are the ardent Wishes of, your Majesty's most dutiful Subjects.

Dated at Bridgnorth aforesaid, the Fifth Day of November, One thousand seven hundred and sixty one.

The following Address of the Balives and Burgesses of the Borough of Scarbrough in the County of York, has been presented to His Majesty by William Osbaldeston and John Major, Esqrs. their Representatives ſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Balives and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Scarbrough in the County of York.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE the Balives and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Scarbrough, in Common-Council aſſembled, humbly crave Leave, with the reſt of our Fellow-Subjects, to congratulate your Majeſty upon the Event of your Majeſty's Auſpicious Marriage; in which, with the greateſt Satisfaction, we admire your Majeſty's moſt providential Concern, for ſecuring the Happineſs and Liberties of your Majeſty's People, by an Alliance with a Princeſs ſo eminent for Her Virtues, and Illuſtrious Deſcent: And with the moſt fervent Zeal we implore the Divine Providence, to bleſs your Majeſty, and your Royal Conſort, with an Illuſtrious Progeny, inheriting the Royal Virtues of your Majeſties; by which the Civil and Religious Liberties of theſe Kingdoms may be preſerved to lateſt Ages.

Sealed with our Common Seal, the Twenty-fourth Day of October, in the Year of our Lord, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-one.

The following Addreſs of the Bailiffs, Burgeſſes, and Commonalty of the Borough of Tewkesbury, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Sir William Codrington, Bart. one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Bailiffs, Burgeſſes and Commonalty of the Borough of Tewkesbury in the County of Glouceſter, in Common Council aſſembled.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiffs, Burgeſſes and Commonalty of the Borough of Tewkesbury in the County of Glouceſter, actuated by the warmed Sentiments of Loyalty, and with Hearts filled with the ſincereſt Joy, beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty upon your moſt auſpicious Nuptials with a Proteſtant Princeſs, illuſtrious by Birth, and diſtinguiſhed by the moſt eminent Virtues and amiable Endowments.

We are ſo highly ſenſible of the great Care and Regard your Majeſty has ſhewn for the Happineſs of your People ſince your Acceſſion to the Throne of your Royal Anceſtors, that we cannot view this important Event but with the greateſt Pleaſure and utmoſt Satisfaction; an Event that affords us the agreeable Proſpect of having thoſe invaluable Bleſſings which we ourſelves poſſeſs under your glorious Reign, perpetuated to future Ages by Deſcendants from the beſt of Kings.

May your Majeſty and your Auguſt Conſort long live and enjoy an uninterrupted Courſe of Happineſs; may your Majeſty's Counſels and Arms continue Triumphant; and may the Crown of Great Britain be for ever worn by Princes, lineally deſcended from your Majeſty and our moſt gracious Queen.

Given under our Common Seal at the Tolſey in the ſaid Borough, the Twenty-ſeventh Day of October, in the Second Year of your Majeſty's Reign.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriffs, and Common Council of the City of Cheſter, has been preſented to Her Majeſty: Which Addreſs Her Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the Queen's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

BE pleaſed, moſt gracious Queen, to accept the joyful Welcome of His Majeſty's dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriffs and Common Council of the City of Cheſter, in Common Council aſſembled, on your ſafe Arrival on this happy Iſland, more eſpecially on ſo auſpicious and joyful an Occaſion as your Majeſty's Nuptials with our gracious Sovereign; a Monarch, who has diſtinguiſhed the Beginning of His Reign with endearing Declarations of Conſtitutional Regard for the Welfare and Happineſs of His People. We congratulate His Majeſty at the ſame Time on His Union with a Princeſs ſo illuſtrious as your Majeſty, the Object of His Royal Choice and affectionate Regard, from the Proteſtant Attachment to His Royal Houſe, and your Majeſty's admired Endowments, and amiable Virtues.

Under the animating Proſpect of ſuch mutual Support of our common moſt excellent and exalted Faith, in its Proteſtant Communion, we are happy in the preſent Opportunity of approaching your Royal Preſence on the Britiſh Throne, and ſhall offer our unceaſing Prayers to the Throne of Grace, that your your Majeſties may long live to enjoy the mutual Happineſs of your Royal Nuptials, and be bleſt with a Line of glorious Deſcendants, Emulators of their Royal Parents exemplary Fame, ſtrenuous Defenders of our moſt excellent Conſtitution, and handing down His Majeſty's Patriotic Name, and glorious Example, to the lateſt Generations.

Given under our Common Seal, this 30th Day of October, 1761.

Stockholm, Oct. 16. We have received the News of our Fleet's being arrived in the Harbour at Carlſcroon, after having ſuffered a good Deal by the bad Weather. And we hear ſeveral of the Ruſſian Men of War had been obliged to take Refuge in Carlſhamn, upon the Coaſt of Blekin: The others were a few Days ago in Dantzick Road.

Magdebourg, Nov. 3. The Letters from Pomerania mention, that General Platen had penetrated with a Body of Six Thouſand Men as far as Golnow; where his Van Guard, conſiſting of two Free Battalions, commanded by Colonel Corbiere, was ſurrounded, and made Priſoners, by a very ſuperior Corps of Ruſſians.

We hear from Stettin, that the Garriſon, and that Part of the Pruſſian Army, which remained before Colberg, under the Command of the Duke of Wirtemberg, were in no Want of Neceſſaries of any Kind.

On the 28th paſt the King of Pruſſia ſtill continued at Strehlen: His Cavalry, as well as that of General Laudohn near Freybourg, were cantoned, there having been, in thoſe Parts, a conſiderable Fall of Snow. The Corps under General Beck, which marched to Fridenberg upon the Queiſs, is expected to join Marſhal Daun's Army in Saxony, who, it is believed, will then begin to act. In the mean Time, Prince Henry keeps his Poſition at Schlettau; and the Army of the Empire are plundering and raiſing Contributions, where they can with Impunity.

Laſt Sunday Morning Princeſs Ferdinand of Pruſſia was brought to Bed of a Princeſs, and continues in a fair Way of Recovery.

Hambourg, Nov. 6. Letters from Pomerania ſay, that the Ruſſian General Romanzow had ordered ſome Battalions and Squadrons to inveſt Treptow; and that General Knoblock, who had thrown himſelf, with his Corps, into the Town, having refuſed to ſurrender the Place, it was bombarded; and ſeveral Houſes having taken Fire, the ſaid General found himſelf obliged to capitulate on the 24th paſt. The Loſs which the Pruſſians have ſuſtained in Priſoners is conſiderable; beſides ten Pieces of Cannon and ſix Colours taken by the Ruſſians.

Duſſeldorff, Nov. 6. Prince Soubize's Army, that for this ten Days paſt have been cantoned about Eſſen, will next Week enter into the Winter Quarters aſſigned them in the Towns on the Left of the Rhine, except ſome Squadrons of Cavalry, that will be quartered in the Biſhoprick of Liege.

Liege, Nov. 7. It is determined that the eight Squadrons of the Gendarmerie ſhall have their Winter Quarters in this State, between the Sambre and the Maes; but the Etat-Major will be lodged in this City.

City. We ſhall alſo have ſix other French Squadrons quartered in our Territories.

It is ſtrongly reported here, that Campfort's Corps will be incorporated in the Regiment of Vierſet, to ſerve as Light Troops in that Regiment; and that the Whole will be commanded by Brigadier Vierſet. It is alſo ſaid, that Horion's Regiment will be incorporated in Bouillon's, to make it four Battalions.

Hague, Nov. 13. Prince Ferdinand decamped from Ohr, on the 4th Inſtant, and croſſed the Weſer. His Serene Highneſs eſtabliſhed his Head Quarters at Hagenchſen that Night: The Army encamped between Haſtenbeeck and Tundern, but were to march from thence immediately. The heavy Baggage was ſent to Hameln. Marſhal Broglio was on the ſame Day at Eſcherſhauſen: His Troops were foraging, whilſt the Allied Army croſſed the Weſer; which had the accidental Inconvenience of diſcovering Prince Ferdinand's Motions, whilſt it obliged the French to retire with Precipitation.

The Hereditary Prince marched the Day before the Army, on the 3d Inſtant, croſſed the Leine, and marched to Eltz; and on the 5th, had a Cannonade of ſome Hours with a Body of the Enemy, upon the Mountain of la Huve above Eimbeck.

Major General Freytag, with his Body of Light Troops, marched forward the ſame Day, on which the Army croſſed the Weſer to Lutter; and, on the 5th, attacked and carried a Poſt of the French, between that Place and Ahauſen: He was proceeding to Seeſen, but learned on his March, that Lieutenant General de Stainville had abandoned that Place with Precipitation, and inſtead of turning to Eimbeck, had retired to Northeim. General Freytag purſued, and came up with the Rear Guard, and took ſeveral Priſoners.

Lieutenant General Wangenheim and General Luckner marched, on the 4th, to Bodenburg and Groſſen Elve towards Gandersheim, where Prince Xavier of Saxony was with his Reſerve.

The Conſequence of theſe Motions is ſaid to have been the diſlodging Marſhal Broglio from Eſcherſhauſen; and it is thought a general Action between the two Armies may enſue.

Marſhal Soubiſe continues to have his Head Quarters at Eſſen, whilſt his Troops are chiefly cantoned between the Emſer and the Roer. His Motions ſeem to depend entirely upon thoſe of Marſhal Broglio's Army; but his Operations have been confined of late to ſending Patroles as far as Werle. Both Armies had expected to ſeparate for their Winter Quarters about the 15th.

Colberg held out ſtill on the 2d of this Month, and it was hoped that Means had been found to ſend them a Supply of Proviſions. The Ruſſian Army is ſtill in Pomerania.

Dublin, November 5.

Yeſterday being the Anniverſary of the Birth of the late King William the Third, of glorious Memory, the Great Guns in His Majeſty's Park the Phœnix, were fired three Rounds, and anſwered by Vollies of Small Arms from the Regiments of Foot on Duty, drawn out in the Royal Square at the Barracks. At Noon there was a very ſplendid Appearance of Nobility and Gentry at the Caſtle, to compliment his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant. After which, his Excellency, attended by the Nobility and Gentry, and eſcorted by a Squadron of Horſe, went in Proceſſion round the Statue of King William, and Stephens Green. In the Evening there was a Play, given by his Excellency for the Entertainment of the Ladies. And the Night concluded with ringing of Bells, Bonfires, Illuminations, and all other Demonſtrations of Joy.

St. James's, November 17, 1761.

His Majeſty, for the better diſcovering and bringing to Juſtice the Perſons concerned in writing and ſending the ſaid threatening Letter, is, hereby, pleaſed to promiſe His moſt gracious Pardon to any one of them (except the Perſon who actually wrote the ſame,) who ſhall diſcover His, or Her, Accomplice or Accomplices in the ſaid Fact, ſo that He, She, or They, may be apprehended and convicted thereof. BUTE.

And, as a further Encouragement the ſaid Sir Francis Daſhwood does, hereby, promiſe a Reward of One Hundred Pounds to the Perſon, or Perſons, making ſuch Diſcovery as aforeſaid, except as before excepted; to be paid, by him, upon the Conviction of one or more of the Offenders. F. Daſhwood.

St. James's, November 17, 1761.

Whereas it has been humbly repreſented to the King, That, on Wedneſday the 21ſt Day of October laſt, between the Hours of Six and Seven in the Evening, a Horſe belonging to Mr. William Collins, Supervizor of Exciſe, at Warminſter, in the County of Wilts, was, by ſome malicious and evil-diſpoſed Perſon, or Perſons, ſtabbed, or cut, at the Door of the ſaid Mr. Collins's Houſe, at Warminſter aforeſaid, in ſo terrible a Manner that he died thereof: His Majeſty, for the better diſcovering and bringing to Juſtice the Perſons concerned in the ſaid Crime, is, hereby, pleaſed to promiſe His moſt gracious Pardon to any one of them (except the Perſon who actually ſtabbed or cut the ſaid Horſe) who ſhall diſcover His, or Her Accomplice or Accomplices in the ſaid Fact, ſo that He, She, or They, may be apprehended and convicted thereof. BUTE.

And, as a farther Encouragement, the Commiſſioners of Exciſe do hereby promiſe a Reward of Fifty Pounds to the Perſon, or Perſons, making ſuch Diſcovery as aforeſaid, to be paid by their Secretary, upon the Conviction of one or more of the ſaid Criminals.
